Legendary Sicilian Circuits

Get behind the wheel of our SportCars and drive along one of the legendary circuits of Sicily which are among the oldest car races in the world, such as the Monte Pellegrino Hill Climb Circuit (Palermo) or the Targa Florio Circuit. Targa Florio, is an open road endurance automobile race which was the oldest sports car racing event, part of the World Sportscar Championship between 1955 and 1973.

Monte Pellegrino Hill Climb, the first uphill car race dating back to 1908. Goethe describe as the most beautiful headland in the world, overlooking the city of Palermo on one side, and with a spectacular view of the enchanting beach of Mondello on the other; here Nuvolari raced and won his last race in 1950. The Syracuse Grand Prix was a motor race held at Syracuse Circuit in Sicily. It was part of the Formula One non-Championship calendar,
